

Family Engagement In the Trenches

Webinar 3: Interviews

Scott Sykes

"Head start is an extraordinary program that has helped many families through it's years. It is a pleasure for me to be part of it and know that families in need, are receiving assistance and there is removal of generational poverty."

Family Service Worker - Coach/Mentor
LEADS HS/EHS Programs

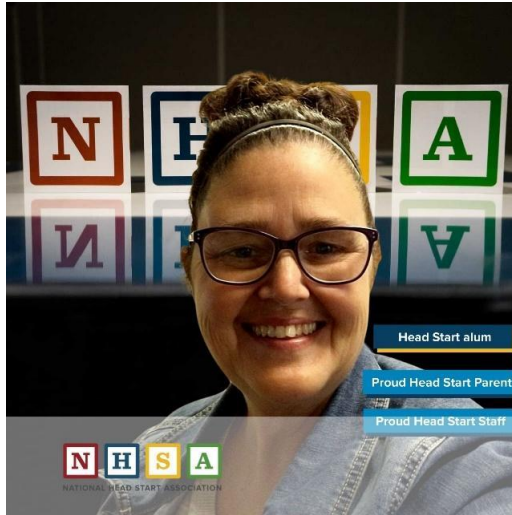

Jessie Hixon

“ I love working with families and being available to them, to help with whatever resources they may need.”

Family Service Worker - Coach/Mentor
LEADS HS/EHS Programs

Sherry Day

“ I am honored to be a part of the Head Start Community for so many years, giving back what was given to my family. My grandchildren will never be a part of Head Start but will live with the values and culture that Head Start brings to all of our lives. Head Start Works!! ”

Family Service Worker
LEADS HS/EHS Programs

Question 1

How often are you doing interviews/surveys?

Question 2

How do you space out your interviews in an ‘interview season’?

Question 3

How do you as a group prepare for your 'interview season?'

Question 4

What tools have you found helpful while doing the interviews?

Question 5

How do you handle difficult interviews?

Question 6

What's the best way to make your assessments more like a conversation?

Question 7

Do you find that the location of the interviews can make a difference in the overall conversation?

Question 8

How are you included in the sharing of the final outcomes of the reports?

Question 9

What would you say is the hardest part of doing assessments and how do you overcome it?

Question 10

For you, what is the most rewarding part?

Questions?

Sherry, Jessie, and Scott!!

